

You spend an hour buying a bra.
You can take 12 minutes for your breast health.

It's easy to get so wrapped up in cup size, coverage and support that you don't think about breast health. But a mammogram is the single most important thing you can

For a list of risk factors and American Cancer Society recommendations, visit www.Cancer.org. Appointments are on a first-come, first-served basis. An order from a physician or qualified healthcare provider is not required, but the patient must provide a physician/provider name when an appointment is made. If the patient does not have a physician/provider, a list will be provided for selection. All mammogram reports will be sent to the physician/provider, and the patient is responsible for follow-up. *Check with your insurance provider to confirm coverage for a screening mammogram.
